

Answers to Thornbury High St Trail

1. There are several differences that you might see. Nowadays:
 - The road has a tarmac surface.
 - There are lines and markings on the road.
 - There are cars and vans using the road.
 - The shop signs are mostly on the shop fronts, not sticking out.
 - There are probably no dogs standing in the road !
2. The frame is wood – you can see the beams on the ceiling through the window.
This is now a bank : Santander
3. Horders , stationers and printers.
4. Town hall. Lock-up. Market.
5. There are metal hooks in the ceiling of the porch.
6. He was shot while fetching water for his men.
7. a) For watering animals
b) Providing water for people
c) As a signpost
d) And nowadays, for displaying flowers and notices...
8. Lots of men and boys talking and shouting, cattle mooing, the pump, the same buildings as today. The clothes are very different. There is probably cattle dung on the road.
9. The swan has a ring around its neck in the picture and is sitting on a nest.
10. It was the police station.