

Comments from current members of Olveston Young Farmers' Club:

Martin: "I have gained a fantastic group of friends since joining YFC and it's not just a Monday night group of friends. We spend most weekends socialising or playing sports with other clubs too."

Verity: "Young Farmers is full of interesting and fun people."

Jessica: "A great way to meet lots of new friends and learn new skills."

Simon: "YFC is a great personality developer. All ages are equal. I personally enjoy stock judging competitions."

Dave: "Since joining three years ago, I have gained a lot of knowledge about farming, public speaking, and YFC in general. It has also been an excellent way of forging friendships not only in our club but throughout the county."

Hayley: "You meet lots of people and get involved in sport, stock judging etc. There's a competitive spirit!"
